

Oren Harman

Education

Oxford University

D.Phil in History of Science, Modern History Faculty, December 2001
Dissertation title: 'A Life of Controversy or Darlington's Place in History'
M.Sc. in Economic and Social History, with Distinction, 1998-1999
Thesis title: 'The Western Reaction to the Lysenko Affair'

Harvard University

Visiting Doctoral Fellow, 2000-2001

Hebrew University of Jerusalem

B.A. summa cum laude in History and Biology, 1995-1998

Hebrew University High School, Jerusalem

1988-1991

Collegiate School for Boys, New York City

1986-1988

Awards and Scholarships

- The Alon Fellowship, 2005-2008
- The Golda Meir Post-Doctoral Fellowship, Hebrew University of Jerusalem, 2004-2005
- The Lady Davis Fellowship Trust, Post-Doctoral Fellowship, Hebrew University of Jerusalem, 2003-2004
- Sidney M. Edelstein Post-Doctoral Fellowship, Hebrew University of Jerusalem, 2002-2003
- The Bertram J. and Barbara B. Cohn Fellowship, Harvard University, 2000
- ORS Award, British Government, 1999-2001
- AVI Rothschild Fellowship, 1999
- The Yehoshua Arieli Prize for Historical Writing, Hebrew University of Jerusalem, 1999
- The Alexander Fuchs Prize in Ancient History, Hebrew University of Jerusalem, 1997

Professional Appointments

Bar Ilan University

- Chair, Graduate Program on Science, Technology and Society, 2009 - present
- Senior Lecturer, Graduate Program on Science, Technology and Society, 2006 – present
- Adjunct Lecturer, Graduate Program in the History and Philosophy of Science, 2003-2005

Hebrew University of Jerusalem

- Adjunct Senior Lecturer, Faculty of Life Sciences and Faculty of Humanities, 2005 – 2008;
- Adjunct Lecturer, Faculty of Life Sciences and Faculty of Humanities, 2003-2005
- Lecturer, 'Amirim' honors program, 2004-2005

Harvard University

- Teaching Appointment, Department of History of Science, 2001-2002

Teaching

- 'Darwinism'
- 'The Idea of Progress in Biology'
- 'The Evolution of Sex'
- 'The Humanities Meet the Life Sciences'
- 'Reading Darwin in the Twenty-First Century'
- 'Rebels, Mavericks, and Heretics in Biology'
- 'Altruism'

Filmography

- "Did Herzl Really Say That?!"
Co-conceiver, writer, and host of the Israeli Oscar nominated series. The series includes the following seven hour-long films:
 1. "The Transparent Kippa" (2006)
 2. "If I forget Thee" (2006)
 3. "The World of Yesterday" (2006)
 4. "Israel – Our Home?" (2006)
 5. "We Will Return, Eventually" (2007)
 6. "Haredi 2007" (2007)
 7. "O! My Homeland!" (2007)